

Tantramar Chevrolet

Automotive Technicians & Apprentices

Tantramar Chevrolet is seeking Licensed Automotive Technicians & Apprentices for their store located in Amherst, NS.

The successful candidates will be highly motivated, honest with a good work ethic and positive attitude.

Qualifications:

- * Desire to work in a Service Department where teamwork and customer satisfaction are #1.
- * Be well organized; possess a good work ethic and a positive attitude.
- * Be a graduate of a recognized Automotive Service & Repair program
- * Have a valid drivers' license and be able to provide an acceptable driver's abstract.

Rewards:

The Steele Auto Group offers a competitive salary and incentive plan with full medical, dental and related company benefits. If you are looking for a challenging opportunity and a great place to work, you are invited to submit your resume in confidence to hr@steeleauto.net

About the Steele Auto Group (www.steeleauto.com)

The Steele Auto Group is a highly successful organization that has continued to build upon its reputation for great customer service and for being an employer who values loyalty, hard work and integrity.