

Position	Section Grower
Employer	Zenabis
Facility	Note: Successful candidates will be required to complete a 6-12 month training period at our Licensed facility in Atholville, NB before commencing regular duties at the Stellarton, NS site.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

Assist in the management of a commercial Medical Marijuana production facility operation and perform all tasks in cannabis cultivation processes including cloning, transplanting, plant maintenance, pest/pathogen management, trimming, drying, curing, packaging, destruction and inventory management.

Core Competencies

- Knowledge of ACMPR, Marijuana products and its approved uses.
- Demonstrated experience in cultivation of marijuana or other delicate commercial crops.
- Knowledge in plant disease and pest mitigation without use of chemicals.
- Focused, dedicated professional approach with high attention to detail.
- Must follow ZENABIS's policies and contribute towards the goal of achieving production targets within set timelines.
- Have deep knowledge of soil/ soil less growing methods, micronutrients, beneficial bacteria, and nutrient implementation. Experience and technical knowledge in product moisture level controls during production, curing, and packaging states of medical marijuana products.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Manage crop scheduling and to precisely project all cultivation requirements on a daily/weekly/monthly/ quarterly basis in order to meet sales demand in a cost-effective manner.
- Assist the Production team of Cultivation Technicians and guide them to achieve production targets within set timelines.
- Perform and control activities related to cannabis starting materials and execute production processes as per respective Standard Operating Procedures (SOP).
- Develop and execute irrigation, and nutrient supply plans to ensure optimum plant growth and maximize finished product output.
- Execute integrated pest and pathogen management program in view of elimination/ control of all types of mold powdery mildew, spider mites, fungus gnats, etc.
- Ensure compliance with regulatory guidelines, internal organizational policies and security measures related to Marijuana products.
- Report regulatory issues and concerns with the potential to impact product quality to Quality Assurance department and management.
- Maintain audit ready status of Production department and participate in internal self- inspection and Health Canada regulatory audits, as necessary and participate with audit response preparation.
- Assist with Marijuana processing, product transfer and destruction of Cannabis materials and Marijuana products. Ensure process and product security measures at all times during the entire processing stages.

How to apply:

Please send resume and cover letter to: pictou@careerconnections.ca with Zenabis in the subject line.

Posted by: