JOB Descriptions

1. Team Member:

At our restaurants, we feed the world. But we do more than fill people up. We fulfill their life. Our meals matter, and when we serve them with southern hospitality, we make our customer's day. So our jobs are more than a paycheck – they're about being independent, having fun, and making new friends.

As a Team Member, you could be the smiling face that greets and serves customers. Or you could be the cook that prepares our world famous food (and tell your friends you know the "secret" – just kiddin'). Whatever job you do, you know what you do matters – to your team and to your customers.

What are we looking for?

The good news is that your training will teach you everything you need to know to succeed on the job. But there are a few skills you should have from the get-go:

- You're a fun and friendly person who values customers and takes absolute pride in everything you do.
- You like talking – a lot – even to strangers (despite what your Mom told you). This is important, because you're not able to text message customers.
- You've got attitude - the right kind of course - and understand the need to be on time, all the time. With loads of energy, you understand that work is easier – and more fun – working as a team.
- And you're at least 16 years old.

We will consider all candidates with a proven ability to lead and we are willing to train the right person for the role. It is required to have your own reliable transportation as some evening and weekend shifts are expected.

2. Shift Manager:

Are you a leader in training?

If you're ready for a career in restaurant management, our Shift Supervisor position is the right place to start. Working as a Shift Supervisor lets you develop your management skills while still having the time to do the things you enjoy. You'll benefit from our training and career opportunities and receive reward and recognition for your efforts.

The good news is that your training will teach you everything you need to know to succeed on the job.

But there are a few skills you should have from the get-go:

- You're honest, energetic and fun.
- Able to get along and talk easily with people. You're never short of a smile and take real pride in your work; cope well under pressure and thrive on a challenge.
- A natural leader, you want to be captain because you can bring together a winning team.. You're all about teaching new things and motivating the team to work together.
- You set high standards for yourself and the people you work with – you love keeping things fun for the team and the customers.
- You want to learn how to run great restaurants from the best restaurant managers in the business.
- And, you're at least 18 years old with a valid driver's license, reliable transportation (not public transportation – you may need to drive to make deposits

In a typical day, you are accountable for:

- Cash reporting, inventory control and scheduling during shifts
- Ensuring health, safety and security codes are met and followed

As a leader, you are responsible for:

- Coaching, mentoring and training the team at their workstations during your shift
- Implementing the shift plan and ensuring a smooth production
