

Olin Chlor Alkali products and Vinyls is the global leading producer of chlorine, Caustic Soda, as well as other derivatives including Hydrochloridric acid and bleach. The Olin Abercrombie Terminal receives and expedite different chemical products for the Maritimes region as well as Northern United-State area. For more details please visit www.Olin.com

Terminal Operator

The terminal operator ensure safe reception and transfer of different chemical products to tank cars or tank trucks to serve clients. In more details he is responsible for:

- Ensuring safe reception, inspection and movement of railcars;
- Performs pre and post loading inspections to ensure conformity of product and shipment.
- Prepares tank cars and tank trucks for chemical loading and performs appropriate manoeuvres to load or transfer.
- Manage the transfer of chemical products to pipeline customer.
- Product sampling and analysis.
- Complete shipment, inspection and certification papers.
- Perform different mechanical maintenance tasks with piping, pumps, valves, etc.
- Make inspection rounds and ensure appropriate condition and functioning of the equipment and installations.
- Ensure safety and security of the site.

Preferred candidates would have a completed high school diploma in a specialized craft such as mechanical, electrical or another field of specialization combined with an acquired knowledge in maintenance. In terms of work experience, 3-5 years in an industrial environment is required, preferably in chemical environment, high safety standard environment or heavy industry. The incumbent must also be able to work alone on site, operate machinery (pay loader), as well as wearing a respiratory masks.

This position is offered on a 40hrs/week base, Monday to Friday, on weekly day and evening shift rotation.

Olin offers competitive remuneration, as well as a complete benefits.

Applicant's résumés shall be sent by email or in person before: August 10th,2018.

Send resumes to: pictou@careerconnections.ca with "Terminal Operator" in Subject Line
Or drop off resume to: Nova Scotia Works Career Connections
138 Campbell Street, New Glasgow, NS

Job posted by :